

Saturday September 24th 1:00 - 3:00pm
1619 FLUX - 1619 West Main Street, Louisville, KY 40203

A Louisville event responding to violence in our community.

Together we can build appreciation for all members of our community. Together we can build a community of peace - piece by piece.

You can make a difference.

YOU'RE INVITED

Together Louisvillians who have lost loved ones to violence, who are gunshot wound survivors, or who have suffered extreme violence – women, men, children, parents and grandparents, locals, refugees, Mayor Fischer and other public officials, first responders, and you. In a powerful symbolic action representatives will create a Table of Peace made by hundreds of tiles.

Be there and help create healing and bridge-building: Peace, Piece-by-Piece.

Event includes gathering (1:00 – 1:30pm), presentations from local leaders and the creation of the Table of Peace with representatives from around the community (1:30 – 2:30pm) followed by participation by all.
